Our emergency departments, located in Frick, Latrobe and Westmoreland hospitals, treat people with conditions ranging from minor injury and illness to life-threatening injury or illness requiring immediate care such as:

- Sudden facial drooping or weakness in an arm or leg,
- Uncontrolled bleeding,
- Sudden or severe pain,
- Difficulty breathing,
- Fainting,
- Difficulty breathing,
- Chest pain or pressure,
- Uncontrolled bleeding,
- Coughing or vomiting blood,
- Chest pain or pressure,
- Fainting,
- Difficulty breathing.

For these symptoms or any other health problem you believe is life-threatening, call 9-1-1 or go to the nearest emergency department.

For these symptoms or any other health problem you believe is life-threatening, call 9-1-1 or go to the nearest emergency department.

For these symptoms or any other health problem you believe is life-threatening, call 9-1-1 or go to the nearest emergency department.