OLD WORLD CHRISTMAS BENEFITS EXCELA HEALTH HOSPICE

GREENSBURG, PA, October 30, 2017 ... Rizzo's Malabar Inn, Crabtree, hosts an Old-Fashioned Italian Christmas event 6 p.m., November 30 in its banquet facilities to benefit Excela Health Hospice.

Tickets, priced at $75, include a glass of house wine and appetizer station before patrons enjoy an Old World Italian buffet including antipasti bar. Homemade cookies round out the old-fashioned taste treats. The evening's entertainment includes a festive photo booth and musical selections by Adam Fitz, a Chicago native who performs soulful renditions of popular songs throughout the Laurel Highlands.

Raffle baskets and a 50/50 drawing are also part of the fund-raising festivities.

Excela Health Hospice provides meaningful, end-of-life care and support to patients and families faced with a terminal illness. Staff and volunteers help to relieve many of the physical, emotional and spiritual burdens associated with terminal illness. Excela Health Hospice provides families with 13 months of bereavement care after the loss.
For tickets, contact Cindy Paul, Excela Health Hospice, 501 West Otterman Street, 724-689-1800. Make checks payable to Excela Health Hospice. Reservation deadline November 20.
